Thursday and Friday mornings classes from 8:30 am – 12 noon

Registration Information

You may register using the attached registration form for one or both programs.

A total of 14 hours of MCLE has been requested, including one hour of Ethics and one hour of Professionalism, at a total cost of $600.

You will receive course materials, a T-Shirt, networking opportunities and some great eats!

Hotel Reservation Information

A small block of rooms is reserved at the Destin Embassy Suites. Rate is $234 single or double occupancy thru 6/4. Friday night rooms (6/5) are $299 for king and $319 for two queens. Call 850-337-7000 and use Code NUT. You can also email me for online link. If you are staying over Friday (6/5), you will see an average of rates; however, the details will show the correct rate each day – if not staying over Friday night, just edit the dates and you'll see the $234 rate. We will overflow to the Hilton Garden Inn like last year if necessary.

Other Information

Attached is an application form for the “Judge (Ret.) R. Harmon Drew, Jr.” Scholarship Award for a student enrolling in a Louisiana Law School. Requirements are listed and deadline to apply is May 1. Continuing Legal education (CLE) credit is approved for judges and attorneys through the LA State Bar MCLE Committee; LA Clerks of Court earn one point per day toward recertification; 3 warm-up hours and 10 hours at regular Nuts & Bolts approved for court reporters through the LA Board of Examiners of Certified Shorthand Reporters (including Ethics and Rules/Regs) marked with (), and certificates of attendance will be given to peace officers to request P.O.S.T. credit.

A program agenda including all speakers and topics is attached.
